

Coordinating Secondary Transition Planning, Process and Activities: A Seminar for Transition Leaders

WHAT:

The Coordinating Secondary Transition Planning, Process and Activities: A Seminar for Transition Leaders workshop is a two-day event that will focus on implementing best practices and community linkages. Participants will be guided through an effective secondary transition planning process for students with disabilities that goes beyond the completion of the IEP transition forms to creating and implementing meaningful and effective transition plans.

Emphasis on:

- Visioning – the foundation for common understanding to support useful planning
- Information on “how to” make the necessary connections and relationships
- Meaningful age-appropriate transition assessment process
- Adult agencies’ eligibility requirements/processes and expectations of what is “transition ready”
- Available adult services/supports
- Tools and resources

Training Team:

Facilitators for this seminar include representatives from:

- Ohio Department of Education – Office for Exceptional Children
- Rehabilitation Services Commission (RSC)
- Ohio Secondary Transition Improvement Grant (OSTIG)
- Ohio Center for Autism and Low Incidence (OCALI)
- Other Agencies TBA

INTENDED SEMINAR OUTCOMES:

At the completion of this training (and the recommended associated activities), participants will have both information and strategies to improve the transition planning process within their districts or buildings that will lead to improved post-secondary outcomes for students with disabilities. The purpose this training is to develop informed transition leaders.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

TRANSITION LEADERS! Those with experience and leadership in secondary transition within a district, region or agency who are looking for tools, resources, and strategies to enhance the transition planning process and adult outcomes for students with disabilities.

Note: Prior knowledge of the basic IEP transition process and necessary steps for compliance is recommended.
