

Reminders When Commenting or Asking Questions in Class:

1. Make sure that the question or comment is related to the topic being discussed in class.
2. Make sure that it is an appropriate time to ask the question or make a comment.
3. Raise your hand and wait to be called upon before making a comment or asking a question.
4. After asking a question or making a comment, remember to let the teacher respond.
5. Remember that other students in the class may have questions or want to make comments. Limit your questions and comments to three per class.
